Words of Welcome/Announcements

God is good, all the time... all the time, God is good.

Lighting of the Christ Candle

We are a people who remember. We remember the gift of creation. We remember the history of our ancestors. We remember the revelation of God's light, love and sacrifice. We remember to carry all that God has given us like a light into the darkness.

Hymn: O Canada

VU 524

O Canada! Our home and native land! True patriot love in all of us command. With glowing hearts we see thee rise, the True North strong and free! From far and wide, O Canada, we stand on guard for thee. God keep our land glorious and free! O Canada, we stand on guard for thee. O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Laying of the Cross: Sheila Huntley

In Flanders Fields:

In Flanders fields the poppies blow between the crosses, row on row, that mark our place; and in the sky the larks, still bravely singing, fly, scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago, we lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, loved and were loved, and now we lie, in Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe: to you from failing hands we throw the torch; be yours to hold it high. If ye break faith with us who die we shall not sleep, though poppies grow in Flanders fields.

Last Post – Silence - Reveille

All: May Eternal rest be granted unto them, O God, and may Your eternal light shine on them. May the souls of the righteous rest in peace through Your great mercy. Amen.

Call to Worship

The Lord created us in God's image.

And we have warred with that image.

The Lord granted us stewardship over the earth.

And we have warred with this earth.

The Lord came to us to proclaim repentance and salvation.

And our hearts warred.

But there is hope for the Lord has come to us!

Because of Jesus, peace abounds.

Where Are We: Proper 27/Remembrance Sunday

Hymn: O God our Help In Ages Past VU 806

1. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home:

2. under the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure, sufficient is thine arm alone, and our defence is sure.
3. Before the hills in order stood, or earth received its frame, from everlasting thou art God, to endless years the same.
4. A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.
5. Time like an ever-rolling stream soon bears us all away; we fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.
6. O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, be thou our guard while troubles last, and our eternal home.

Opening Prayer:

God, author, and giver of peace, in whose image and likeness each of us has been created with a human dignity worthy of respect. Listen to our cries, hear those lost in the shadow of wars, bring comfort, and console those whose lives have been torn apart by the tides of human conflict.

Lord, remind our hearts that loving our enemies is the key to finding peace. Help us to remember that the greatest way to love our enemies is to bring them to Christ Jesus. To share the liberation of the Gospel with all.

Amid war and hardship, we find hope, joy,
love, and peace through the abundant grace
of the Lord our God. Amen.

Children's Song: I've Got The Joy

my heart, I've got the joy, joy, joy, joy down in my heart (Where!?) down in my heart to stay.
- R. And I'm so happy, so very happy, I've got the love of Jesus in my heart And I'm so happy, so very happy, I've got the love of Jesus in my heart
2. I've got the love of Jesus down in my heart (where!?) Down in my heart, (where?) Down in my heart I've got the love of Jesus down in my heart (where!?) down in my heart to stay. R.

Prayer of Confession:

Lord, we are still trying to learn to forgive those who trespass against us, and you call us further to love our enemies. We admit that we will find challenges in living this way of life. But as we do so, call our eyes upon the cross, remind us how Jesus loved his enemies, how he died for them, and how he invites them to new life through repentance and faith. Amen.

Scripture readings:

Job 19:23-27 read by Allan Borden

Oh, that my words were recorded, that they were written on a scroll,²⁴ that they were inscribed with an iron tool on lead, or engraved in rock forever!²⁵ I know that my redeemer lives, and that in the end he will stand on the earth.²⁶ And after my skin has been destroyed, yet[d] in[e] my flesh I will see God;²⁷ I myself will see him with my own eyes—I, and not another. How my heart yearns within me!

Luke 20:27-38 read by Rev. Jacob Shaw

Some of the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Jesus with a question. ²⁸“Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies and leaves a wife but no children, the man must marry the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died childless. ³⁰ The second ³¹ and then the third married her, and in the same way the seven died, leaving no children. ³² Finally, the woman died too. ³³ Now then, at the resurrection whose wife will she be, since the seven were married to her?”

³⁴ Jesus replied, “The people of this age marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵ But those who are considered worthy of taking part in the age to come and in the resurrection from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage, ³⁶ and they can no longer die; for they are like the angels. They are God’s children, since they are children of the resurrection. ³⁷ But in the account of the burning bush, even Moses showed that the dead rise, for he calls the Lord ‘the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ ³⁸ He is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive.”

Message

Hymn: God! As with Silent Hearts VU 527

1. God! As with silent hearts we bring to mind how hate and war diminish humankind, we pause, and seek in worship to increase our knowledge of the things that make for peace.
2. Hallow our will as humbly we recall the lives of those who gave and give their all. We thank you, God, for women, children, men who seek to serve in love, today as then.
3. Give us deep faith to comfort those who mourn, high hope to share with all the newly born, strong love in our pursuit of human worth: 'lest we forget' the future of this earth.
4. So, Prince of Peace, disarm our trust in power, teach us to coax the plant of peace to flower. May we, impassioned by your living Word, remember forward to a world restored.

Musical Offering: Morley Denne

Offertory Prayer

Today, Lord, we offer to You, not only that Your will be done, but also to remember and honour all those who have come to know the meaning of sacrifice. If they can give their lives for the greater good, we too can find it in ourselves to give for Your ultimate goodness and glory. Amen.
